

Dear Hemingway's,

We're in the airport in Cape Town, sad to be leaving. It has been a wonderful week. Thank you again for all your suggestions and arrangements. Everything was absolutely smooth and easy.

The Cape Grace was excellent. In addition to One Waterfront and Baia, we ate at Societe, which was also very good. We ate at City Grill which was OK.

The town ship tour was one of the most interesting, moving, and inspiring mornings of my life. You must make everyone who goes to SA attend. It was so eye opening and we met some wonderful people and were really heartened by the progress and building. I am going to find some ways to support them when I go back to New York.

The drive to Hermanus was gorgeous (thanks also for arranging 9 days of perfect weather!). I loved the Abalone house and thank you for the bottle of wine. We ate at Harbor Rock in town – excellent. We saw whales from the shore but we also went out in the Dyer Island boat trip (3 hours). It was about $100 and I'm not sure I would recommend it. You see the whales closer but not much.

La Petite Ferme was incredible. I want to live there. Our room was as big as our apartment. What a view. We saw the biggest rainbow ever one morning. We ate at Rueben's and the Bistro in town. Both very good. Someone tipped us off to stop at Dieu Donne vineyard. The wine was OK but the view was spectacular.

What a nice job you have checking out all of these places! This is certainly a country I would like to come back to. I can see how you have fallen under its spell.

Amy
